

These continuing nursing education activities are approved by the Alabama State Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

Southern Medical Association
2010 CME/CNE Activity Calendar

associations/9886/files/SMA2009_activities.pdf

NurCE Programs ~ Fall 2009 Schedule

Click here for more information

Moderate Sedation Certification for non CRNA Nurses

DVD Provider Directed Independent Study – Offering Home Study Workshops for Individual and Facility License Agreement. 8 Continuing Education Credits. Healthy Visions Seminars in Partnership with the American Association of Moderate Sedation Nurses (AAMSN), 800 Oak Ridge Turnpike, Ste A-208, Oak Ridge, TN 37830; toll free 866-312-31595 or 865-220-0777. email: lena@eslinger.net, www.sedationcertification.com

The University of Alabama Continuing Studies

Adolescence, Transition, and Adulthood in Autism Spectrum Disorder

February 26, 2010

<http://autism.ua.edu>

A.A.T.E.C./S.E.A.T.E.C. SHORT COURSE OFFERINGS

A.A.T.E.C./S.E.A.T.E.C. provides individually tailored training programs on HIV/AIDS/STDs related topics at or near your workplace. All programs are offered at NO CHARGE. The following is a sample of commonly requested topics that can be covered in 1 to 4 hours. All health care workers, public and private, in Alabama are eligible. A minimum of 10 attendees please. Contact hours awarded. You may e-mail me meriwether@uab.edu or call (205) 975-9380 to discuss your training needs.

Click here for more information.

HIV and other STIs for Prevention and Health Care Professionals

Friday, April 23, 2010 ~ 10:00 AM – 3:00 PM

Click here for more information