Convention	Dr. Humphries noted 1 or 2 more Delegates are needed from the District. She thanked all those that have volunteered as Delegates. Ms. Horton noted she can be a Delegate if the time frame is from 3-5PM on September 25th. Other names provided as possible delegates included Marsha Cannon, April Ervin, and Candice Height. All delegates must register by 9/8/2020. Ms. Smith noted the Silent Auction is not going to be a part of the Convention. All funds collected for the Silent Auction will go toward Scholarships.
Scholarship	Dr. Humphries offered congratulations to our three Scholarship award recipients: April Ervin, Jasmine Rogers, and Ariel Rocker. They were introduced to the group by Dr. Humphries. They each provided thanks for the scholarships. Ms. Ervin noted that she work in the NICU at DCH Northport, and is currently working on her MSN in Nursing Education at UNA. Ms. Rogers noted she is a Senior at UA and will graduate in December. Ms. Rocker is a Sophomore at UWA and

Community Project	plans to work in Labor & Delivery after graduating in May. Dr. Humphries will place their information in the upcoming Newsletter. Dr. Humphries encouraged everyone to please sign up to help in the soup kitchen on December 5th. Ms. Bodin and Ms. Peoples both agreed to help. Dr. Humphries asked Ms. Bishop to send the sign-up link to everyone in the District. The sign-up link is on the Facebook page and in the Newsletter.
	Dr. Julie Jones asked for donations to help with the project. All donations are to be sent to Ms. Felton.
Old Business:	Dr. Humphries noted that we are awaiting to hear back from students to help design our T-Shirts. She has spoken with Ms. Sharmayne Jones and someone has been identified to print them for $5-6 each. Dr. Humphries noted the ASNA logo will go on the front and a design will go on the back. Ms. Horton provided a design submitted by her daughter. This design will be emailed to

New Business: Other: Date of next meeting:	everyone for the review and input. Dr. Humphries noted the newsletter for August is posted. Congratulations to our two Excellence Award Citation recipients, Olivia Smith and Jessica Dutton. They were spotlighted in the August Newsletter. Dr. Jones informed us that she is running for the ASNA Secretary position. Dr. Jones also suggested providing deodorant to prisons in our District for the Convention's community project. The suggested prisons include Bibb County and Aliceville Correctional Facilities. This recommendation needs to be sent to the Convention Committee for approval and then to Ms. Charlene Roberson. Ms. Horton noted this could be a community effort as flyers could be sent to the healthcare facilities and Schools of Nursing, if approved. She further noted we could set up a Venmo account for donations with monies being sent to our secretary. Also the amount of deodorant needs to be determined. The Taylor Hardin facility may also be an option for the project. The next meeting will be Sept 21, 2020 via zoom.
